

Triangle Interfaith Alliance

An evening of food, fellowship and thoughts regarding

Love

When: Sunday, March 26, 2023 at 5:00 p.m.

Where: Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

2723 Clark Avenue, Raleigh, North Carolina

Format: Guests will share a potluck meal, followed by fellowship and inspirational thoughts on Love from their faith perspective.

For questions, please contact Nancy Hendershot at nancy.aurora@gmail.com on or before March 20.

Please bring a dish to share. Dinnerware and beverages will be provided.

Triangle Interfaith Alliance members represent diverse faith traditions including Bahá'í, Buddhist, Christian, Hindu, Jain, Judaism, Islam, Native American, and Sikh, as well as those with no particular affiliation who are interested in interfaith work. We invite you to learn more about our activities and to help us promote interfaith understanding, cooperation, and a compassionate community in the Triangle area. Learn more about us at www.interfaithalliance-nc.org.